will each und in its pages the means of prevention, ameliors ton and relief. Extract of a laster from a genilaman in Day on, Ohio:—

Day A. M. Mauricau—My Dear Sir. My wife has been perceptibly sinking for some three years or more, in consequence of great anguish and suffering some months before and during confinement; every successive one more debilisated and procurated her, putting her life in imminent danger, and which was, on the last occasion, despaired of. I supposed that the state of things was inevitable, and resigned myself to meet the worst. I beard your book highly spoken of, as containing some matter reaching my case. On its receipt and perusal, cannot express to you the relief it alforded my distressed mind, and the joy its pages imparted to my wife on learning that the great discovery of M. Decomeaux provided such a remedy it presented a prospect to me which I little conceived was possible. But for this, ere sandbar year would have passed ove my head, in all human probability, my wife would have been in her grave, and my children; aft motherless.
